thredUP set to Join Russell 3000® Index

June 23, 2022

OAKLAND, Calif., June 23, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ThredUp Inc. (Nasdaq: TDUP), one of the world's largest online resale platforms for women's and children's apparel, shoes, and accessories, is set to join the broad-market Russell 3000 Index at the conclusion of the 2022 Russell indexes annual reconstitution, effective as of market open on June 27, 2022, according to a preliminary list of additions last posted June 17, 2022.

Annual Russell indexes reconstitution captures the 4,000 largest US stocks as of May 6, ranking them by total market capitalization. Membership in the US all-cap Russell 3000® Index, which remains in place for one year, means automatic inclusion in the large-cap Russell 1000 Index or small-cap Russell 2000 Index as well as the appropriate growth and value style indexes. FTSE Russell determines membership for its Russell indexes primarily by objective, market-capitalization rankings and style attributes. thredUP is also expected to be added to the Russell Microcap Index.

"Inclusion in the Russell indexes marks an important milestone for thredUP and demonstrates the progress we have made as a public company," said James Reinhart, CEO and co-founder of thredUP. "Our inclusion in these indexes will elevate our visibility among the investment community, bringing attention to our commitment to delivering both purpose and profit while inspiring a new generation of consumers to think secondhand first."

Russell indexes are widely used by investment managers and institutional investors for index funds and as benchmarks for active investment strategies. Approximately $12 trillion in assets are benchmarked against Russell's US indexes. Russell indexes are part of FTSE Russell, a leading global index provider.
